

Two Webinars Added to Help You Get Up and Running with Life

As part of Patriot Insurance's goal to breathe new "life" (insurance) into Maine and Vermont, we've added two more webinars to help agency partners learn more about our products, how to quote and submit them, and who to contact for additional help.

We are very excited to further enhance our line of personal and commercial insurance products with the introduction of Life Insurance in these two states both as a stand-alone product and as an added product for current policyholders. These webinars will show you how to bring a valuable, vital service to the record number of Americans who do not have life insurance.

Many of you have recently become licensed with Patriot Life or have had discussions with your field managers and expressed interest in becoming partners with us. Register now for one of these great webinars and take advantage of the opportunity to grow your business.
